NBCRFLI Board offers its condolences for the passing of the SATAWU Gauteng Secretary

The South African Transport and Allied Workers Union (SATAWU) Gauteng Secretary, Chris Nkosi, was shot and killed on 13 April 2015 in Johannesburg.

“The Board members of the National Bargaining Council for the Road Freight and Logistics Industry (NBCRFLI) would like to send their condolences to the family and colleagues of Chris Nkosi during this difficult time. We recognise the tremendous loss suffered by his family and those who worked with him,” says Musa Ndlovu, NBCRFLI National Secretary.

"The Council's relationship with SATAWU stems way back to the Council's very establishment. Through close alliances with our parties to Council, including SATAWU, we have established and upheld various Collective Agreements to ensure the better regulation of labour matters which affect the Industry as a whole," concludes Ndlovu.
