NOTIFICATION ON THE AMCU'S INTENDEND PROTEST ACTION ON THE 20 MARCH 2018

The Association of Mineworkers and Construction (AMCU) is preparing for a protest action in the form of one-day national strike on Tuesday, 20 March 2018.

On 29 August 2017 AMCU submitted a Section 77 (1)(b) notice confirming its intention to proceed with a socio-economic protest strike action "due to the failure of the Department of Mineral Resources to ensure the socio-economic welfare of workers through proper regulation and enforcement."

AMCU has subsequently given notice to NEDLAC in terms of Section 77 (1)(d) of the Labour Relations Act, that they will embark on a nationwide protest action on 20 March 2018.

The protest action will take place in Pretoria, Durban, Polokwane and Welkom.

In Pretoria, AMCU members will be marching to the Union Buildings in Pretoria. According to Tshwane Metro Police the proceeding will start at 9 am at Burgers Park situated on the corner of Thabo Sehume & Jacobs Mare Streets and end around 14h30.

The streets affected in Pretoria will be the following: Lilian Ngoyi, Frances Baard, Nelson Mandela Drive and Madiba Street .

Yours sincerely

Musa Ndlovu
National Secretary
